

The Puerto Rican Episcopal Conference and the Pontifical Mission Societies of Puerto Rico set out on a journey of prayer, reflection and discernment, which led to the undertaking of the liveliness of the missionary spirituality of the Church of America.

Puerto Rico and all of the Caribbean would become the gateway to return to the roots and restate the faith of the particular churches of the continent.

All the people of God who pilgrim and evangelize in these Borincana lands must pray unceasingly for the preparation of the CAM 6 and its fruits; as well as, to offer their talents and charisma, for the development of the mission.
